Foxford Learning Plan

YEAR 9

Topic 9.3 Information Kiosk

Spring 1

Key Vocabulary

Mood board	A mood board is a type of visual presentation or 'collage' consisting of images, text, and samples of objects in a composition.
Story board	A storyboard is a graphic organiser that consists of illustrations or images displayed in sequence for the purpose of pre-visualising.
Information Kiosk	A specialist computer terminal providing access to a range of information.
Hyperlink	A link which when clicked will take you to somewhere else for example another web page.
Embedded	Something which is placed within a document, for example an animated picture in a ppt.
Animation	A moving picture.
GIF	A file type, this is a series of frames making an image appear to move.
Test plan	A comprehensive plan of everything you will need to test to ensure you product works effectively as desired.
User testing	Testing carried out by the end users of the product to ensure it does not have faults before general release.
Accessibility	Catering for the needs of all users, ensuring your product is accessible, for example, and visual impairment.
User interface	The go between for a user and a digital device – what allows the user to make the device function.

Key Skills

Over the course of the topic, I will be able to: -

- Make a digital mood board.
- Make a digital story board.
- Design an information kiosk.
- Make an information kiosk using PowerPoint.
- Link PowerPoint slides.
- Add animations, sounds and videos to PowerPoint.
- Complete effective testing of my user kiosk.
- Complete effective user testing of my kiosk.
- Reflect on my work.

I will Understand

1. What a mood board is and how to make one.
2. What a digital storyboard is.
3. How a PowerPoint can below a user interface.
4. How to link slides in a PowerPoint.
5. How to add animations and sounds to a PowerPoint.
6. What effective testing is.
7. How to be a reflective learner.