Foxford Learning Plan

YEAR 11

Topic Changing Cities and revision

Summer 1 and 2

Key Vocabulary

Site	The location of an urban area
Situation	The location of a place relative to the surrounding area
Comprehensive development area	An area of the city that was demolished and rebuilt on a planned basis
Central business district	The central area of a city where land use is dominated by chain stores and specialist shops
Core and frame	The central area of the CBD is the core, the frame is on the edge of the CBD where there are markets and transport terminals
De-centralisation	The movement of shops, offices and factories away from the city centre
Immigrant	A person moving into a country to live there
Migrant	A person who moves from one area to another to live
Relief	The height and shape of the land

Key Skills

Over the course of the topic, I will be able to: -
Analyse a range of sources and refer to that source within examination questions
The structure of writing required within examination questions to obtain higher level marks
Analysis of population structure graphs is a requirement of the unit
Interpreting OS maps and satellite images

I will Understand

1. The structure of urban areas in the U.K. and beyond
2. The reasons that cities have changed in the past 50 years
3. How cities have changed and the impacts of those changes
4. How cities can be managed with intended and unintended consequences
5. The importance of revision and a range of strategies to support revision within the subject