Foxford Learning Plan

Year: 12/13

Topic: Crime & Deviance (with Methods in Context)

Term: Autumn

Key Vocabulary
Deviance	Green crime
Anomie	State crime
Strain theory	Surveillance
Labelling theory	Zero tolerance
Moral panic	Victimology
Subculture	Social control
White-collar crime	Global organised crime
Corporate crime

Key Skills

Over the course of the topic, I will be able to

Over the course of the topic, I will be able to:

- Explain different sociological perspectives on crime and deviance.
- Analyse patterns of crime by class, gender and ethnicity.
- Evaluate theories of crime prevention, surveillance and punishment.
- Assess the role of the media and globalisation in shaping crime.
- Apply sociological research methods to the study of crime (Methods in Context).

I will understand

- How functionalist, Marxist, interactionist and feminist theories explain crime.
- The distribution of crime across social groups and the explanations for it.
- The impact of globalisation and the media on crime and deviance.
- The role of the criminal justice system, punishment and surveillance.
- How sociological research methods are applied to the study of crime.