Foxford Learning Plan

YEAR 10 (Language)

Topic Paper 1

Autumn 1

Key Vocabulary

Summarise	To express the relevant facts or ideas in a short and clear form.
Evaluate	To make a judgement about something based on evidence.
Narrative Perspective	The way a story is being narrated and by whom.
Language (Language techniques)	The way a writer conveys meaning through language.
Structure (Structural techniques)	The way a text is put together.
Analysis	A detailed examination of writers' techniques to convey feelings and ideas.
Writer's intention	The meaning or interpretation the writer had in mind when writing.
Oxymoron	A technique where two contradictory words are next to each other.
Juxtaposition	Two ideas/sentences placed close together with contrasting effect.
Semantic Field	A collection of words which are related to one another by topic.
Symbolism	Using an image to represent an idea.

Key Skills

- Annotate and respond to texts.
- Identify and comment on writers' methods.
- Evaluate statements.

I will Understand

1. How to successfully respond to the reading questions (Section A) of the English Language Paper 1.
2. How to write about language and structure using what, how, why paragraphs.
3. How to evaluate a statement and offer opinion.
4. How writers utilise language and structural techniques to create specific effects.
5. How to write 'what, why, how' paragraphs.