Foxford Learning Plan

YEAR 10

Topic

Autumn 2

Key Vocabulary

Language Devices	Techniques used in writing to communicate ideas and feelings more effectively
Metaphor	When something is said to be something else to compare the two
Symbolism	Use of images to represent ideas
Word Class	Groups of words with the same purpose or use
Juxtaposition	Two things being put together to contrast them
Oxymoron	When two words with opposite meanings are used together
Semantic Field	A set of words with the same theme or idea
Analysis	To break down and look at a piece of writing or word in detail
Inference	To form an opinion or idea based on what is already known
Fluency	Being able to write in different forms accurately and with a wide vocabulary
Writing Purpose	Writing with the goal to clearly express an idea to a particular audience
Tone	The attitude a writer uses in their work e.g. formal or informal

Key Skills

Over the course of the topic, I will be able to: -
Communicate clearly
Adapt tone and style for different forms and audiences
Use language and structure creatively and to fit purpose
Write with technical accuracy, using a range of punctuation and technique

I will Understand

1. How to write using descriptive narrative/form
2. How to use a range of creative methods in writing
3. How to write effectively/creatively to engage readers
4. How to use sophisticated vocabulary for effect
5. How to use DSZIL structure to write descriptively