Foxford Learning Plan

Year 11 (Language)
Topic Paper 1
Spring

Key Vocabulary
Genre	A type or category of text defined by conventions (e.g. horror, romance, dystopian)
Narrator	The voice telling the story
Perspective	Point of view of the narrative
Inference	Reading between the lines
Explicit Information	Clearly stated details
Language Analysis	Exploring words and their effects
Structure	How a text is organised
Setting	Where and when a story takes place
Characterisation	How characters are presented
Atmosphere	The mood created in a text
Contrast	Differences between ideas or images
Evaluation	Judging how effective something is
Description	Detailed writing creating imagery
Narrative	Story writing with plot and characters

Key Skills	What will I learn?
Make inferences with evidence	How writers use language for effect How structure shapes meaning How to evaluate texts How to write creatively (description and narrative) How to use language and structure for effect
Analyse language
Analyse structure
Evaluate texts critically
Make inferences with evidence
Write descriptive and narrative pieces
Use a range of vocabulary and techniques
Apply accurate spelling, punctuation and grammar

Key Knowledge I will understand
1. How different genres influence language, structure, and tone
2. How to evaluate a writer's ideas and methods
3. How to produce successful narrative or descriptive writing
4. Exam requirements for Paper 1.